Enumerators and Supervisors and to the offices to which they belong. It may however not be necessary to give permission for late attendance continuously from today to the 26th inst. It may be sufficient if attendance not later than one o'clock is permitted from the 19th to the 18th with the instruction that preliminary Enumeration should be completed & checked before that date. In particular cases a day or two more may be required. This the Heads of the Offices would no doubt permit if the necessity is made clear by the Supervisors & the Dist authorities.
